

The diagram shows a large circle representing a compartment. Inside, there are several concentric rings. On the left side, there are five curved strips, each starting from the outer ring and curving towards the center. The text 'Recovery Section Lower Ring' is positioned in the upper right area of the circle.

Recovery Section Lower Ring

These strips go on the outside of the compartment wall.
They locate the lower transition ring (Card 15).

